

Dull & Cold

(H. Mariutti / F. Elsas)

Our lives are tied so deeply to the soil beneath our feet
It's hard to break this bond
Take a chance and let it go

To see things from above outside the all-enclosing box
Let's walk across the line
That puts restraints inside our minds

Day by day we grow old
Reality so dull and cold
It's hard to make a bold move and break the chains - they're everywhere

Standing still won't lead us anywhere
The weight of the years' so great
There's got to be a force
To drive us through the hardest part
To back us up so we won't give up
A better life might lay ahead
For those with the guts
Take a deep breath

It all seems so small
When seen from hi above
Up here you hear winds whisper
It makes it all make sense
Make sense

A better life might lay ahead
For those with the guts
Take a deep breath

It looks so simple now
We can do anything
Think outside the box
Take a look around
Think outside the box
Outside lies the truth

Darker Times Ahead

(H. Mariutti / F. Elsas / F. Harris)

There's no going back
We've drawn the line for Earth
We are pushing all the limits
Heading for darker times

Generations didn't care
While abusing our land
Now the open bill is here
And we're all the ones to pay

What can we do, there's no way
To stop the poisoning and pain
What can we do, there's no way
We can pray Earth will heal its way

For many years to come
Our world is to decay
If we all don't make a move

The time to change is now
Or we will run out of time
We're already running low...

Day and night
We'll carry on with our lives
But one day we might run out of air

Day and night
We'll carry on with our lives
Until the point where life cannot exist

Worn Out

(H. Mariutti / F. Harris / F. Elsas)

Just to let you know what's going on
I think I'm getting closer to the end
These things happen to me all the time
This is serious and I must find my way out

I should do something about it
I don't know for how long I've been locked inside this trap
Maybe I was born afraid of living
I'm not really doin' well

Oh you, only you
Can make me smile and wash away the pain
Oh you, only you
The pills hit my brain, here it comes again

So what do you do when you loose your ground?
It's hard to say but I'm desperate these days
I feel like giving up on life
My life, your life

Things could be better if you were with me
Life could mean something with you by my side
I've reached a point where I loose control
Everything is going down

Oh you, only you
Can make me smile and wash away the pain
Oh you, only you
The pills hit my brain, here it comes again

Dear Happiness
Will you be coming back again?
Can you help me get away from my fears and my pain?

Dear Happiness
Will you please come to me again?
Can you help me get away from my fears and my pain?

You see, my time is running out!

Lie

(H. Mariutti / F. Elsas)

Another chance to start again
Rewind my life, looking for mistakes
Falling rain and a black sky
Choices I had to make

To live my life in other way
Without the load
In my mind there's much to change
Decisions from which I can't get away
I must face the pain

Can you see it in my eyes?
Regret for what I've done fills my heart
Circumstances conspired
Brought me to this point
Now I know there's no way back

Lie - that's all that I've become
Lie - please walk me to my grave

Inside my head the confusion goes on
I don't know how to tell what is real and what's not
Maybe this is why I made the wrong choices
Or maybe it is the outcome of it all

I try to listen to the inner voice
It keeps whispering deceiving words
That take down my hopes and all my dreams
I can't take it anymore

Lie - that's all that I've become
Lie - please walk me to my grave
Lie - that's all that I've become
Lie - please walk me to my grave

Done
(H. Mariutti)

Dreams from the past
Everyday all around me
Somewhere else
I loose my faith
And it never will be back

Searching for silence
To break the words
Could be a perfect answer
But the damage is done
When men put their hands

We'll never break certain things
Denying this place and these souls
We can try breathing some air
And find something to make us free and strong

Searching for silence
To break the words
Could be a perfect answer
But the damage is done
When men put their hands

Decay
(H. Mariutti / F. Elsas / F. Harris)

She, all alone
Woke from a dream and fell
She was hurt so bad
She was in pain all day, all night

Her beauty gone, her perfect smile
Now she's dry, her life is gone
No one told her beauty fades away

And all hearts she broke
All tears shed for her
The mirror shows
It's all history now

Nothing lasts forever
She's feeling alone
The time has come
To pay what's due

She was so bright
Supernova among mere stars
Outshined the sun
Until one day light went away

Fast came decay
It gets us all
But the truth inside
It won't get old
And she knows
That her day will come

And all hearts she broke
All tears shed for her
The mirror shows
It's history now

Nothing lasts forever
She's feeling alone
The time has come
To pay what's due

The time has come
The mirror shows
Her day will come

Without The Sun

(H. Mariutti)

I wait for the sound inside my mind
It makes me feel lost all the time
I'm always waiting for a sign
Only a sign

I don't know what's running in my veins
What kind of shit that's not enough for my pain
I'm always waiting for the worst
So save me now
Save me

We all can live a day without the sun
But now, I have nothing for which to pray
We all can live a day without the sun
And it will be better to wake up another day

Pressure guides all my life
Bringing some tears from every night
I could be dressing my sins with my black tie
I could dive in my dreams denying all my lies

We all can live a day without the sun
But now, I have nothing for which to pray
We all can live a day without the sun
And it will be better to wake up another day

Alone

(H. Mariutti / F. Elsas)

Alone – just me and myself for a while
With not a thing to hide
I can reach deep inside of my mind
There is silence in my ears
I can hear nothing but my own thoughts
As I look back I can see
All the bruises I got from the fight
Have turned into deep scars

No more pain or self pity
No more anger at the past
I feel like I've been given a second chance
I will take it, I won't let go

It's time to rearm and face the fight
I'll get up and I'll go my way

Running - I've got no time to waste on bullshit
Or what you have to say
Get out of my way
I've got a life waiting for me

All the goals that I set for myself
Those won't be left aside
“If there's a will there's a way” someone said
I just have to pave my way
No matter how much blood and sweat
Might spill on the trail I leave
In the end of the day I'll fall asleep with that sense of accomplishment

No more pain or self pity
I've had enough fighting with the past
I sure feel I've been given a second chance
I will take it, I'll grab it by the horns

It's time to rearm and face the fight
I'll move my ass and I'll seize the day

Running - I've got no time to waste on bullshit
Or what you have to say

Get the fuck out of my way
I've got a life to care for

Running - I've got no time to waste on bullshit
That's all you have to say
It has always been this way
But now the tide has turned on you

Changing Tide

(H. Mariutti / F. Elsas)

No matter how good it seems
No matter how hard you try to make it last
It will go away

Life has a way
To surprise you when you least expect
Out of the blue

So you hold on to what you think you've got
Unsuspecting of the change ahead

It was a hell of a ride
But now it's through where will you go from here?
There's only haze

You strain your eyes and see a giant wave headed your way
You can't turn away

So you hold on to what you think you've got
Unsuspecting of the change ahead
When it comes it hits you like a brick
Knocks you senseless wondering what went wrong

And then day after day
You make you best to face your fate
One day you'll feel at home
Just in time for the next wave
Next big wave

Don't ever get fooled by calm waters around
It's all so fragile and vain
You'd better prepare for what lies ahead, for now you live
The calm before the storm

And then day after day
You make you best to face your fate
One day you'll feel at home
Just in time for the next wave
Next big wave

If I Were Gone

(H. Mariutti / F. Elsas / F. Harris)

I've got all it takes
To be a happy man
Yet I can't get to sleep at night

Sometimes
I can't help but wonder
Would life go on without me here?

I don't know what holds me back
From doing what I'm thinking of
I'm still here for my despair

One selfish thought
Has crossed my mind
How would things be if I gave in?

I could take my soul
Out for a ride
Find out what lies in the other side
If I were gone
Would you remember me?
And forget the stupid things I've said

If I were gone
Would someone miss me?
Or maybe somehow feel relieved I'm gone?

I don't know what holds me back
From doing what I'm thinking of
I'm still here for my despair

If I were gone
Would you remember me?
And forget the stupid things I've said

If I were gone
Would someone miss me?
Or maybe somehow feel relieved I'm gone?

Left Aside

(H. Mariutti / R. Faria)

I'm not sorry that
You had to let go
And now I can't get comfort there
I have to bear
with the weight of my soul

I'm sorry that
I've pushed for more than I should Now I realize
That you let me, and for that I blame you too

So you paid for my every mistake
As my future was slipping away
Leaving nothing but hopelessness

Now you know
If I wanted to go,
I would leave anytime
I don't care, time is on my side

Cut me loose
To see what I am made of now
Let me look past this gray old town
Wasted and left aside

So you paid for my every mistake
As my future was slipping away
With the weight of this morning light
